- Par. 5 Competitors must enroll in just one category: however, solists from Section 1 are allowed to take part also in the Section 2 and in the Section 3 and viceversa.
Par. 6 The association may apply some changes to this announcement in the future and possibly suppress a category, if competitors are not enough. In that case, the attendance fee will be refunded. Furthermore, the association will not be responsible for any damages or losses due to competitors, during all the competition.
Par. 7 All competitors can enroll in higher categories, if they think consider themselves able.
Par. 8 Competitors will be allowed to test the piano following a timetable provided by the association.
Par. 9 Before any examination, competitors will be asked by the examination board to show the following documents:
 1) ID card 2) Two copies of the sheet music program. Simplified piano pieces are not allowed.
Par. 10 Competitors will be examined in alphabetical order, beginning from a letter randomly chosen on the first day of the competition. Exception made for Section 3 in this case the starting letter will be drawn 8 days before the opening of the competition, in order to ease the staying of the competitors.
Par. 11 For all competitors of section 1 and 2 the program is free choice repertoire; the competitors of "Piano Performance" will be submitted to first eliminatory round and final round.
 For competitors of Cat. Junior, A,B,C and Section 2 the performance by memory is NOT strictly necessary; for all remaining categories and section 3 the performance by memory is compulsory.
Par. 12 Competitors will be able to test the piano checking a timetable that will be available on the website www.ischiapianocompetition.com a few days before the beginning of the competition.
Competitors are kindly invited to inform themselves about .
Par. 13 Results will be published at the end of the examinations for each category.
Par. 14 Competitors who have been taking lessons in the last two years from members of the examination board (or are related to any of them) are not allowed to take part in the competition. In the application form is strictly necessary to put the teacher's name. The full list of the examination board will be available on the website www.ischiapianocompetition.com
Par. 15 The examination board will be formed by musicians, teachers and renowned musical personalities.
Par. 16 The examination board may stop players, if the max. time is expired.
Par. 17 The board's decisions are final and irrevocable. The examination board may also decide not to give any prize due to a low-level general performance of the candidates.
Par. 18 The award ceremony for the First, Second, Third and Fourth winners will be held at the end of the examination of each category. Absolute First Prize Winners of each category will take part in the Major Award Ceremony that will be held on July 5th 2020 at "Teatro Polifunzionale", in via delle Ginestre n° 41 - Ischia .
 Absolute First Prize Winners who won't be present at the final concert, won't be awarded any prize.
Par. 19 The calendar of the examinations and the date of convocation (from which each competitor will know the day and the time of the call for his/her category) will be published on the association website www.ischiapianocompetition.com. Each candidate, therefore, in order to know the day of convocation, will have to visit the website or call the secretary of the association "Note sul Mare" (tel. 0039/ 081 5071403 or 0039/ 333 3283159) .
 "Note sul Mare" will not be responsible in this case; no other forms of convocation are considered.
Par. 20 Candidates will have to provide for their staying during the competition.
Par. 21 Pursuant to Art. 10 of the Law n° 675/96 on Personal Data Protection, the musical association "Note sul Mare" declares that all requested personal data will be used only to send informations strictly related to the competition. However, pursuant to Art. 1 of the same Law, the owner of the data can forbid its use.
Par. 22 The application to the competition entails the unconditional acceptance of the rules of the present announcement.
